

50' SINGLE-DOOR BOX CAR

HO SCALE

PROTO FASTFACTS™

In Service: 1940s-1970s

Primary Uses: Auto parts, appliances, furniture and similar loads

Adopted as an Association of American Railroads standard in 1942, these 50' cars featured a 10'6" interior height and were built in single- and double-door styles. Handling light, bulky loads, some lasted in revenue service into the 1970s.
